Who We Are

The Friends of the Rideau is a volunteer, non-profit organization which works to:

- Enhance and preserve the natural and cultural heritage of the Rideau Canal.
- Increase public awareness and enjoyment of the Rideau Canal.
- Develop strong public support for the long-term well being of the Rideau Canal.
- Promote co-operative Rideau Waterway information distribution.

One of our projects is to produce books and publications that provide information about Rideau natural and cultural heritage. These include:

- “A History of the Rideau Lockstations,” “The Rideau Route,” and “Tales of the Rideau” by Ken W. Watson.
- “Pathfinders,” “Fish Tales,” and “Invisible Army” by Ed Bebee
- “The Sweeney Diary” edited by Ken W. Watson
- Building the Rideau Canal: A Pictorial History by Robert W. Passfield
- Rideau Manuscript Reports (various Rideau topics) produced by Friends as Books on CD.
- Brochures including: How a Lock Works, Be Rideau Loon Aware and The Depot to Dam Trail.

The Depot

Our retail outlet and interpretive centre, open during the summer, is conveniently located on the waterfront in Blockhouse Park, near the upper lock in Merrickville. There is plenty of parking and spacious grounds where you can picnic, watch the boats go by, or rent a canoe or kayak to actually get out on the water.

Inside you will find useful publications and interesting items for sale including:

- Nautical Charts
- Books
- Videos & DVDs
- Boating Materials
- Crafts & Clothing
- Souvenirs

As an interpretive centre, the Depot also offers all sorts of information about the Rideau Canal plus we offer canoe and kayak rentals.

Out and About

Look for the Friends of the Rideau booth at various summer events in the Rideau Corridor.
